Property Description

Lot 3 is the largest lot of the 4 at 14,543m² and offers the largest jungle area as well as a large buildable space. It is perfect for those looking for a large private villa in the Costa Rican jungle or a charming coastal b&b. The lot is a mountain retreat near sunny Coronado, just a hop, skip, and a jump away from tourism hot spot Uvita. The coast is full of attractions and picturesque beaches to explore and you will find a mixture of local eateries and international restaurants. This lot offers a great view of the surrounding mountains from its hilltop perch as well as the lush jungle scenery. The gradient of the land means you never have to worry about losing your view because your property will be higher than anything built below. It is a true nature-lover's paradise; home to monkeys and tropical birds. The nearby Ballena Coast is a marine national park and great for spotting whales and dolphins too.
