Property Description

Welcome to your slice of paradise in Portalón! Perfectly positioned between the renowned destinations of Manuel Antonio and Dominical, this up-and-coming town offers an ideal blend of tranquility and convenience. This exceptional 100% flat, usable property is located just five minutes from the newly acquired festival site near Hatillo, making it an ideal spot for those seeking both peaceful surroundings and easy access to vibrant community events. The annual festival enriches the area and offers a potential income-generating opportunity for future owners. Access is a breeze with a newly paved road leading directly to the property, where electricity, fiber-optic internet, and water are readily available. The location is also a dream for nature lovers, bordered by a thriving eco-resort on one side and a functioning farm on the other. As if that weren't enough, this property offers even more hidden gems: - A stunning 30-foot waterfall tucked away at the end of the road – a true local secret.
