Property Description

This newly constructed home sits at the pinnacle of the neighborhood, offering panoramic white-water views that stretch along the coastline and beyond to the surrounding mountain ranges. Experience the refreshing ocean breezes and towering views that define this unique property. The home is nestled within the highly sought-after Pajaro Azul community, just minutes from Marina, restaurants, and beaches. The main house boasts an open-concept design with soaring, lofty ceilings in the main living area, complementing the chef's kitchen, complete with quartz countertops, an island, and brand-new stainless steel appliances. The primary bedroom offers stunning ocean views and features an ensuite bathroom with direct access to a covered patio area. The second bedroom also enjoys ocean views and opens onto a private patio. The third bedroom, with picturesque mountain views, shares a bathroom with the second bedroom.
