Property Description

Overlooking the lovely beach at Playa Organos, the famous Isla Tortuga and the beautiful coast down to Curu Park, this new, modern home provides all one could ask for in regal tropical living. This lot was especially chosen to capture the outstanding views and the result is an emotional success. The views are outstanding and change throughout the day, over the ocean, beaches, islands, valleys and mountains below. The home is built with an open plan, with spacious rooms full of light. It was built by a couple to accommodate their life style and is comfortable and efficient. The home sits on a structure that could be easily converted to additional apartments, storerooms, or workshops, all enjoying the panoramic views from this unique site. Although high on the hills above the sea, the road is paved with cement and is easily accessible all year round. The beach is just below the hill and the neighboring town of Paquera provides several supermarkets, restaurants, hardware stores, a gas station, a 24/7 hospital and much more.
