Property Description

Nestled in the rolling hills of Quizarra at 2,400 feet above sea level, this exceptional 3-acre private sanctuary offers a rare opportunity to own a piece of Costa Rica's natural paradise. Located near San Isidro within the prestigious Alexander Skutch biological corridor, the property sits at the foothills of the mighty Chirripo mountain and overlooks the pristine waters of the Penas Blancas river. The Main Residence The heart of this sanctuary is an elegant concrete home featuring approximately 2,900 square feet of covered living space. The main level showcases dramatic 20-foot soaring ceilings that create an impressive open living environment. The thoughtfully designed interior includes two bedrooms, two bathrooms, a fully equipped office, convenient TV nook, and generous living and dining areas. The kitchen is a chef's dream, complete with a KitchenAid stove, professional extractor fan, granite countertops, and custom cabinetry.
