Property Description

Where the Four Elements Dance in Perfect Harmony Tucked in the serene enclave of El Pavón, just minutes from the enchanting Pavón Waterfall, Casa Armonía Elements rises like a jewel above the jungle canopy. This newly constructed 8,000-square-foot estate isn't merely a home—it's a soulful masterpiece, created to awaken the senses and offer a life of breathtaking wonder. Positioned on a flat ridgeline with seamless access via a well-maintained road, this sanctuary offers a rare blend of sublime privacy and effortless convenience, with the vibrant village of Ojochal and its famed culinary scene just moments away. From here, the beauty of Costa Rica unfolds in every direction. A Stage for Nature's Most Majestic Performances Commanding 280-degree panoramic ocean views, Casa Armonía Elements gazes across the deep blue Pacific, taking in three distinct whitewater coastlines, Caño Island, and the iconic Whale's Tail formation at Marino Ballena National Park.
