Property Description

A unique opportunity to acquire a charming rustic hotel, located in a strategic area surrounded by lush nature. Just minutes from the beach, this property combines the tranquility of a tropical setting with the convenience of being close to restaurants, pharmacies, a hair salon, and a gas station, offering a complete experience for discerning tourists and guests. The hotel stands out for its authentic rustic style, which integrates natural materials and traditional architecture with cozy and functional spaces. Every detail has been carefully thought out to provide comfort and create a memorable atmosphere that invites guests to return again and again. Thanks to its central location, this property has enormous growth potential in the tourism sector. It is ideal for both established hotel operations and expansion projects, attracting a wide range of visitors: from families and couples to travelers seeking nature, the beach, and nearby amenities.
