Property Description

Immense Potential Farm With Ocean & Mountain Views in Cabuya Tucked into the lush hills of the Southern Nicoya Peninsula, this special farm offers that rare blend of privacy, nature, and prime location. Just a short drive to the beach in Cabuya, and only 7 km from Montezuma and 10 km from Mal País and Santa Teresa. Here, you're perfectly positioned between some of Costa Rica's most famous beaches, surf breaks, restaurants, and services—yet you still feel worlds away on your own peaceful retreat. This is one of those properties that you don't just see—you experience. A large portion of the land has been intentionally allowed to return to its natural jungle state, so as you move through the property, you feel surrounded by life: birds, monkeys, butterflies, and the soft rustle of the forest. Between the wild, reforested areas, there are wide open grassy sections that create beautiful visibility and offer clear, usable spaces for future homes, cabins, gardens, or community areas.
