Property Description

Set Location – Perched on over an acre in the most desirable gated community of Ojochal with one of the most breathtaking mountain-to-ocean views on the coast, Villa Roca demands to be seen in person on the big screen. You'll be struck by how the 1,000 sq ft of wrap-around covered terrace and each room capture their own magnificent frame of the view. Surrounded by hundreds of acres of green space, jungle, and protected river reserve, yet just 10 minutes from some of Costa Rica's best restaurants and beaches, Villa Roca's setting provides serenity and safety with a Pura Vida experience minus the crowds.

Production Design – A wall of river rock, high laurel wood ceilings, an 8-foot single slab island, colorful paint accents, rich textiles, playful artwork, locally hand-painted washbasins, and custom-built furniture/cabinets/closets radiate warmth and character. The seamless blend of traditional Costa Rican design with contemporary international style creates a joyful spirit that permeates every room.
