Property Description

Tucked into the lush mountains of Pérez Zeledón, this charming three-bedroom residence offers comfortable living at approximately 800 meters above sea level. From this vantage point, you'll enjoy expansive mountain panoramas—including the iconic Cerro Chirripó, Costa Rica's highest peak—as well as picturesque views toward the Río General winding through the valley below. The split-level layout is both functional and inviting. The upper level features the kitchen, living area, a guest bedroom, and a convenient half bath. Downstairs, the primary bedroom and a second guest bedroom each enjoy their own full ensuite bathrooms, ensuring comfort and privacy for family and guests. Natural beauty surrounds the home, and large windows throughout draw in the sweeping views of mountains and jungle. The upper-level balcony is a highlight, complete with a built-in bar—perfect for sipping a glass of wine while taking in the serene ambiance.
