Property Description

Bahía Papagayo is a 320-acre coastal community in Guanacaste, just 20 minutes from Guanacaste International Airport (LIR). Set along the calm southern shoreline of Culebra Bay and facing Peninsula Papagayo, it sits within easy reach of beaches, national parks, and nearby towns. Trails, coastal roads, and internal pathways connect each neighborhood to the Pacific Ocean and Town Center, creating a walkable environment suited to both full-time living and vacation escapes. With 1.5 miles of beachfront and more than 220 acres of protected dry forest, Bahía Papagayo blends natural beauty, preserved landscape, and exceptional accessibility in one of Costa Rica's most coveted regions. NeighborhoodsBahía Papagayo is composed of multiple residential neighborhoods, each with a distinct atmosphere, real estate offerings, and community amenities, while maintaining cohesive design and environmental integration.
