Property Description

Pueblo del Mar 21 is a beautifully updated, turn-key two-bedroom, one-and-a-half-bath townhome, ideally located just a short walk from Tamarindo's stunning beach and the restaurants, shops, and amenities that make this town one of Costa Rica's most sought-after coastal destinations. This residence stands out as one of the nicest units within the Pueblo del Mar community, offering tasteful upgrades throughout while maintaining its charming colonial character. The home features a modern, well-equipped kitchen and a new water filtration system, making it ready for immediate enjoyment or rental. The second-floor bedroom opens through double doors to a Juliette balcony overlooking lush tropical gardens and the community's sparkling pool. The setting offers a peaceful atmosphere, refreshing ocean breezes, and a welcomed sense of privacy. Located within a well-managed and beautifully maintained community, Pueblo del Mar provides an ideal balance of comfort, convenience, and tropical ambiance.
