Property Description

Just three minutes from the surf break of Manzanillo, ten minutes from Playa Hermosa, and fifteen minutes from Santa Teresa, this newly built turnkey home offers an exceptional balance of privacy, tranquility, and proximity to the area's best beaches and amenities. Located in a peaceful, international neighborhood, the property enjoys easy access with no traffic or dust and is within walking distance to the beach, a café, bakery, and small supermarket. Two international schools are also just ten minutes away. Built in 2024, the single-level home features approximately 237 m² of total construction and sits on an elevated position with spectacular 180-degree valley and mountain views. The design combines solid concrete construction with warm teak wood finishes, creating a bright, airy interior with a smooth and practical flow. The layout includes two bedrooms with en-suite bathrooms, plus a third bedroom with a separate full guest bathroom.
