Property Description

This exceptional 10-hectare (approximately 24.7-acres) property offers a rare combination of privacy, scale, and breathtaking mountain views in the Punto Mira area. Mostly wooded with a small pasture area, the land provides a beautiful natural setting while still offering usable space for building, agriculture, or a private estate. A year-round stream runs along the lower portion of the property, enhancing the sense of tranquility and connection to nature. With public access road frontage, an ideal balance for a secluded retreat or future development. Water service is available through ASADA. Electricity access with power poles located along the road leading toward Punta Mira. This property is a true rough diamond, a large, private parcel with natural beauty, infrastructure access, and expansive views, offering endless possibilities for a dream home, eco-project, or long-term investment.
