Property Description

Tucked into the rolling hills above Sámará, just a five-minute drive from town and the beach, Casa Nube is a distinctive five-bedroom tropical retreat that blends modern design with the relaxed elegance of a boutique hotel. Set on a beautifully landscaped one-acre property, the home offers privacy, style, and an immersive connection to nature—without sacrificing convenience. Positioned among a small enclave of thoughtfully designed homes perched in the treetops, Casa Nube enjoys ever-changing scenery throughout the year: misty green-season mornings, dramatic cloud cover drifting through the hills, as well as vibrant dry-season sunsets, and constant encounters with Costa Rica's rich wildlife. Despite its elevated, tranquil setting, the property remains close to all of Sámará's amenities, including the new Mareas International School. The home is already operating as a successful vacation rental, providing immediate income and strong upside for investors.
