Property Description

Acquarello Boutique Residences by Grupo Zen and Tropico are a new generation of residential projects located in the most coveted destinations in Costa Rica and built under the unrivaled standards of the Acquarello brand. The group has over 30 years experience and 110,000 m2 of projects in Costa Rica. The project is designed and curated to emulate a canvas that frames life as a new work of art every day, an Acquarello residence represents quality and allows for aesthetics and sensory experiences to co-exist within beautiful spaces and intuitive masterplans in this rural beach setting. There are sixteen three bedroom three and a half bathroom residences to choose from and they are carefully master planned respecting the topography as well as working around several mature trees. Shared amenities will include a professional gym, co-working lounge and yoga deck. All water and electric will be underground and the property will have a central water reuse system for irrigating the entire property.
