Property Description

Located just 15 minutes from the village of San Mateo, this remarkable 36-hectare finca offers a rare opportunity to create a private eco community or retreat in a lush and peaceful setting. The property already includes solid infrastructure, with a two-bedroom main home built in 2017 and three independent one-bedroom villas currently used as Airbnb rentals, providing immediate income potential. A large portion of the land is covered in forest, ensuring privacy and a strong natural environment, complemented by abundant fruit trees and three significant natural water springs. Over 5 kilometers of internal trails run throughout the property, which also borders the scenic Jesús María River. An infinity pool and a fully equipped rancho complete the shared spaces. This is an ideal property for a visionary project, in an area where eco-community developments are already emerging and gaining strong interest.
