Property Description

Located less than 3 miles from downtown Atenas, this unique property offers an exceptional opportunity for investors, retreat operators, or those seeking a private estate with income potential. Originally operated as a boutique hotel and now functioning as a wellness retreat center, the property features two main buildings with a total of 13 guest rooms. The main building includes nine bedrooms, a commercial kitchen, common areas, and a spacious terrace. A second building offers four additional guest rooms and a large multi-purpose space ideal for yoga, meditation, workshops, events, or a restaurant concept. The property also includes a swimming pool, staff accommodations, mature tropical gardens, numerous fruit trees, and a river bordering the lower section of the land. Offering excellent privacy while remaining just minutes from Atenas, this versatile estate is ready for its next chapter.
