Property Description

Tucked into the tranquil mountains of Ojochal, this modern 4-bedroom home is a rare family sanctuary — where privacy, comfort, and the abundance of the Costa Rican rainforest come together on just over one acre of fully usable land. As the final home in an exclusive gated community of only four properties, the home offers something most Ojochal listings simply can't match: total privacy backed by Calle Pública access, with the freedom to add a casita or second entrance with no restrictions. A Home Designed for Real Life Bright, open-concept living flows effortlessly from a fully equipped kitchen — anchored by a warm wood island — into a spacious dining and living area framed by sweeping mountain and jungle views. Main-level primary suite — fits a king bed, built-in closets, ideal couple's retreat. Two upstairs suites — walk-in closets, private balconies, perfect for children or guests. Downstairs flex suite with private entrance — in-law suite, home office, art/yoga studio, or income unit (potential for its own driveway). 3 full bathrooms + half bath — every bedroom has en-suite privacy. 2,700 sq ft of living area — built 2020, modern contemporary architecture. Outdoor Living That Earns Its Keep. The covered patio with a wood-fired pizza oven and full second kitchen is built for celebrations under the rainforest canopy.
