Property Description

A beautiful old farm in the exclusive area of Lagunas. Split into 7 properties, this 15 acre farm is an investor's dream. This old farm is just off the main road to San Isidro and a 5 minute drive to Dominical beach. The entire property is wrapped by a road most of which is concrete thanks to a neighbor. A year round stream borders one side of the property with wading pools and waterfalls. With a full water concession, this farm also comes with a spring and all the fresh drinking water you need year round. There are no longer any farm buildings but what's left are a variety of fruit trees with many mature mango along with banana, plantain, cacao and much more. Wildlife abounds here with parrots, monkeys, toucans and an endless variety of birds, flower and fauna. For those who want a quiet nature experience and endless valley views just minutes from the beach, you've found the place. There are 7 lots each with many building sites.
