Property Description

"La Finca Piedra Secreta" is located exactly 20 minutes from Platanillo in San Juan de Dios small mountain town on a public road with legal water makes this farm a dream for sustainable development or private family farm. The property has several building sites with amazing mountain views, some water springs, and a lot of rocks that give the property an extraordinary characteristic. Some of the rocks have special and unique secrets that you will see when you are there... The property also has a creek that crosses one part of the property where you can enjoy natural swimming holes with full privacy. The property is also bordered by a river where it has huge swimming holes. This land will allow you to relax your mind, body, and spirit with the peaceful sounds of water and nature. This beautiful farm used to have 3 homes but now it's only dedicated to cattle farms. It has some beautiful water springs all year round that have some small cascades and can provide water for the livestock if you choose to raise cattle and horses.
