Property Description

This sensational ocean view land is tucked away from the few neighbors in the area and surrounded by pristine jungle, providing quiet tranquility. Located above the village of Ojochal in South Pacific Costa Rica, this is a popular tourist and expat destination with fantastic restaurants, beaches, and a welcoming community that is perfect for everyday family life or for a money-making income property that you use a few times a year for your own enjoyment. Situated at 1200 ft, this tranquil property receives fresh breezes and a slightly cooler climate than you will find at the coast. The 0.5 acres of flat and buildable land is quiet and private, protected by untouched jungle that backs up to the property. There will not be neighbors building behind this property and anyone building below will not get in the way of the ocean view. This stunning ocean view property faces the Terraba River valley and on the clearest blue sky days, you will see all the way to Drake Bay in the Osa Peninsula.
