Property Description

This property has everything you need to make it a private estate or a upscale eco-resort with cabinas, restaurant, and swimming pool. Located just outside of the town of Paquera centro, Finca Rancho Curú hugs a wooded hillside covered in a mix of teak and native dry forest. There are ocean and sunset views over the Gulf of Nicoya from the top of the property. A large barn-style building fronts the public road at the bottom of the property. It features a front office/bedroom and bathroom with a large under roof live/work open space in the back. Constructed of structural steel, it could easily be converted into a loft-style residence, commercial restaurant, or workshop. As the hill rises behind the barn, there is wonderful 1BR/1BA custom built cabina that overlooks the large garden area between the barn and a round rancho sited next to it. The rancho has an outdoor kitchen with plenty of food prep space, custom cabinetry, electricity, and sink.
