Property Description

his property gives you the feeling of being immersed in nature with a beautiful ocean view! Located in phase 3 on a front ridge in Tres Rios the building area has already been laid out with easy access, privacy, and great views! Being surrounded by jungle this is a nature lover's paradise. Along with the great views to the Terraba River and Pacific Ocean you will have a wide variety of wildlife that is visible on the property or passing by. From here you will regularly see 3 types of monkeys, toucans, scarlet macaws and much much more! This property has a very big building pad for your dream, vacation, second, or mixed use home. The southern zone is known for the eco tourism and you nor your guests would have to leave the house to take advantage of what the area has to offer. With no additional site prep this is a great time to take advantage of this opportunity. Purchasing this lot will give you the requirement needed to become a Costa Rican resident!
