Property Description

Costa del Sol, a gated community on Costa Rica's Central Pacific coast in Playa Bejuco, offers a fantastic living experience just 1 1/2 hours from San Jose International Airport. Located near Jaco and Parrita, the newly paved access to the beach from the Carretera includes a new two-lane bridge. Explore the area to discover stunning coastal views with dramatic bluffs, rolling hills, tropical forests, mangroves, and vibrant wildlife. A short drive leads to Quepos, a charming fishing village and gateway to Manuel Antonio National Park, known for Costa Rica's most popular National Park beach. Quepos also features a lively nightlife, restaurants, and an international marina hosting prestigious fishing tournaments. North of Costa del Sol, the surfer village of Jaco offers diverse attractions, including restaurants, shops, and the beach. Various activities are available nearby, such as surfing, canopy tours, monkey tours, boat trips, horseback riding, ATV tours, and river rafting.
