Property Description

Tinamastes is known for its pleasant climate, with warm temperatures and refreshing breezes year-round. This makes it an ideal location for outdoor living and enjoying the natural beauty of the area surrounded by abundant wildlife, lush vegetation, and serene landscapes. Living in such a tranquil environment allows for a deeper connection with nature and the opportunity to explore outdoor activities like hiking, birdwatching, and gardening. The property's secluded location likely offers breathtaking views of the surrounding landscape, which may include lush forests, rolling hills, and even distant ocean vistas. Waking up to such scenery every day is sure to be a delight. Being situated at the end of a road adds an extra layer of seclusion and privacy to the property. This means you can enjoy peace and tranquility without the disturbance of passing traffic or nearby neighbors. The presence of a cabin, small house, and swimming pool adds immediate livability and comfort to the property.
