Property Description

Experience natural beauty in your surroundings at this 16-acre property in San Isidro that is made up of almost all usable land. Views expand from the Chirripo Mountain Range to city views of San Isidro, and a variety of shades of greens that make up the primary rainforest in the distance. The road to the home is two-wheel drive accessible on a well-maintained road that is shared with a neighboring luxury hotel. There are internal roads on the property that can take you to the recently built 2 bedroom / 1 bathroom main home, the soccer field and rustic entertaining lodge, or the large rustic swimming pool. The main home is two levels with room to create additional bedrooms. The home is equipped with a full kitchen, living room, and two bedrooms. Each room of the house offers beautiful views of the Costa Rican countryside. The home has covered parking on the lowest level and storage areas. Opportunity to Create a Permaculture Project and Expand With over 16 acres of usable, flat farmland there are a variety of options as to how you can use the land.
