Property Description

204 Acre Expansive and Remote Paradise! This sprawling 204 acre property is as remote as it is gorgeous! Sitting at 410 meters above sea level, in the rolling hillside 1 hour outside of San Isidro. Multiple wonderful building sites can offer views of the river, mountains, or valley. The southern end borders Rio Division, a beautiful large rushing fresh water river (with suspension bridge to cross!) There is a 3km long summer access road on the north side of the property. A mix of pasture and primary forest, the landscape harbors beautiful trees, flat building areas, jungle, a large animal corral, and an unused house structure. The air is fresh and crisp, but the climate is not as cold as some mountain terrains of Costa Rica. This spot is a sunny tucked away oasis! With multiple surrounding farms and orchards, this soil is fertile for growing. A 6km drive to Sevegre Abajo, which has a couple of markets and a 1h45 drive to Dominical to visit the coast and beaches.
