Property Description

This property comes with the opportunity to live, rent, and build more! Located on what appears to be one property, it has 3 separate plot maps; so one could sell part of the property or maintain a separate rental property from the main house. It has the main home property, another lot with green areas and fruit trees that can be developed, and a third lot with a private entrance which has an apartment with consistent rental income. The concrete block 3 bedroom home with a convenient layout features a big living room next to the dining room, then there is the kitchen which features a ceramic tiled counter top and a back door that leads to the big laundry room. The master bedroom has a private bathroom and a closet. There are 2 more bedrooms that share another full bathroom. All the property is fenced and features a gated entrance which leads through a sidewalk to the house that also has full sidewalks around its perimeter.
