Property Description

Welcome to the perfect country home in San Jose, Costa Rica! This property is an oasis of tranquility surrounded by nature in an unbeatable location. The house is located on a main street, close to important international institutions, national parks and tourist sites of the country. In addition, its high added value and proximity to supermarkets, stores, schools and colleges make it the ideal choice for those looking for comfort and accessibility. The house has three spacious bedrooms, seven bathrooms and an office, giving you enough space for your family and to receive friends and visitors. The social room is the perfect place to enjoy a warm fireplace on a cool evening, while the 6x11 meter pool is ideal for sunny days and for cooling off in Costa Rica's warm weather. With a family country home concept, this property was remodeled in 2016 to bring you modern comforts without losing the charm of country style.
